COOKIES

A cookie is a small file that is sent by our website and placed by your browser on the device where you visit our website. The information stored in the cookie can be sent back to our website when you visit the website again. More information about cookies can be found on the ConsuWijzer website.

For the best possible effect of this website and to tailor the content of advertisements to your preferences, cookies are used.

GOOGLE ANALYTICS

Cookies are placed by our statistics package, Google Analytics. We would like to know how our visitors use the website and how many people visit our website every month, so that we can optimize the use of the website. Of course we do not want you to be tracked undesirably, but we want to serve you as good as possible and we need good statistics for that. With Google Analytics, the information is anonymized as well as possible. Your IP address is expressly not used. We cannot therefore personally reduce you. More information about the policy of Google Analytics can be found here.

SWITCH OFF AND REMOVE

the cookies? You can do this via your browser settings. If necessary, use the help function of your browser to find out how you can do this.

Things you can always do:

- Automatically switch off 'third-party cookies' in your browser. Modern browsers (Chrome and Firefox) offer many options for this.
- In your browser settings, indicate that you do not want to be 'tracked'
- You can always remove the placed cookies from your browser and you can also block them per domain.

Via the website Your Online Choices you can find more information on how to disable cookies.
